Once Hailed As Guerilla Hero

Mihailovic Put Under Arrest As Traitor and War Criminal

By WILLIAM B. KING
BELGRADE, March 25.—(AP)—Gen. Draza Mihailovic, once hailed as a guerilla hero in the fight against the Nazis, was officially reported under arrest as a traitor and war criminal following his capture by Yugoslav authorities.

Legless Farmer

Is Dead in East

TORONTO, March 25.—(CP)—W. J. Gartley, 31, a double amputee, whose weight less than 30 pounds but nevertheless was a successful farmer, died Saturday at his home in nearby Talington.

A veteran of the first Great War, Gartley had to be carried in and out of his house after the amputation of both his legs. In addition, he was troubled with arthritis. Despite his handicaps, he tended a herd of short-horn cattle which was the envy of his neighbors.

LAST MAY HE WROTE to the newspaper attacking what he called "long-haired Socialists," and declaring their criticism of banks and railroads and business generally gave him a severe case of "political indigestion."

"I weigh 30 pounds," he wrote at that time. "My hands are crippled with arthritis. I have no legs, no means of locomotion except a wheel-chair and a motor-car. Yet I run my own business and make a success of it."

Gartley bought a 550-acre farm nine years ago but sold it last year and purchased 30 acres near the city. He is survived by his wife.

Flights to Orient

By-Pass Edmonton

WASHINGTON, March 25.—(CP)—Pan American World Airways has announced inauguration of a series of weekly charter flights from the United States to Shanghai, to be operated under contract with the United Nations Relief and Rehabilitation Administration.

UNRRA officials said the flights would be via Seattle, Adak, Alaska, and Tokyo to Shanghai.

THE FLIGHTS, which are to continue during the spring and early summer, were arranged at the request of Governor Lehman, retiring director general of the UNRRA. The first departure was scheduled for Sunday.

The initial outbound charter flight will follow the long route via Honolulu and Midway Island.

The return flight, however, will operate without passengers over the direct Great Circle route in order to survey the sector between Tokyo and Adak which heretofore has not been flown by commercial aircraft.

City Council

the first 100 kilowatt hours, the next 500 at 3½ cents, and over 600 kilowatt hours two cents.

IT IS ESTIMATED that the proposed reductions will result in a saving of $200,000 to users in the first 12 months. As the rate, if passed, does not become effective until May 1, the saving for the balance of this year would be approximately $185,000.

Also to come before the council is a request from the Edmonton City Employees Federation for the inauguration of the five-day week throughout the city service. Meetings have been held between the federation and the city commissioners, and also between individual unions and the commissioners, but no offer has been made by the commissioners which would provide for even a partial step in shortening the working week.

It is pointed out in a communication from the federation to council that it is possible at the present time to inaugurate the five-day week in the city service. The City of Calgary has closed the city hall now for many years on Saturday mornings, and in Vancouver the five-day week is partially in effect throughout the city service.

Northwestern Utilities Ltd., and Imperial Oil Ltd. in Edmonton have endorsed the five-day week and it is in general effect with these companies.

THE ADOPTION of the proposal, the brief states, would pave the way for some degree of employment for returning servicemen and other Edmonton citizens, who are now, and will come on the labor market.

The adoption of the five-day week would be of benefit to the city because the short working day on Saturday is uneconomical, and the cost of the five-day or four-day week would not be as great, as appears on the surface. Coupled with proper job instruction training in certain branches of the service, greater efficiency can result, fewer grievances, better use of manpower, improved morale, and less labor turnover.

The brief concludes with the statement that it is generally conceded that municipalities should be model employers and the federation would welcome the opportunity to have a round table discussion with city council to further negotiate the adoption of the five-day week.

COUNCIL WILL BE asked to make a grant of $200 to the Edmonton Junior Chamber of Commerce toward the expenses to be incurred by the chamber as host to the national convention of the Junior Chamber of Commerce of Canada which will be held in the Memorial hall in June.

Also to come before the council will be a request from the town of Beverly that the city supply it with electrical energy. The City Commissioners are recommending rejection of the request, and recommend that the city notify the Cal-

NEW YORK, March 25.—(AP)—The Custom Tailors Guild of America today presented its nominations for 10 best dressed men in the United States—and, incidentally, listed what a well dressed man's wardrobe really should include.

Have Huge Hoard

Swiss Holding Tight To Wealth of Nazis

WASHINGTON, March 25.—(AP)—After a week of fruitless haggling with three Allied powers, little Switzerland clung serenely today to a rich war prize—German assets worth hundreds of millions of dollars.

ENTERING THE SECOND week of discussion Monday over the future of the German riches within her borders, Switzerland and United States, Britain and France were agreed on only one thing: The necessity of preventing any future German government from using those assets to prepare an aggressive war.

The Allies insist the Allied Control Council in Berlin, as the actual government of Germany, should take control of German assets everywhere, sell them to non-German buyers and distribute the proceeds as reparations to the countries which fought Hitler.

They estimate German assets in Switzerland at upwards of $750,000,000—roughly three times the official Swiss figure.

Dr. Walter Stucki, head of the Swiss confeder, outlined his country's stand in a plan which he submitted at last week's sessions.

DETAILS OF THE PLAN have not been made public but informed officials say it emphasizes Swiss willingness to take over the assets but insisted that under international law they could not be turned over to the Allies.

Hence, it proposed that Switzerland use them to satisfy claims of Swiss citizens against Germany.

In the background also are upwards of $1,000,000,000 in Swiss assets, "frozen" by the United States Power Co., that it has no power to the company supplying power to residents of Beverly.

It is reported that the company is willing to supply energy at a price Beverly residents are willing to pay, but will not complete a contract with the town until approval is given by the city.

Advices from Moscow said well informed diplomatic sources believed the Iranian-Russian question would be settled shortly by direct negotiations between the two countries.

Sam Snead Cops Greensboro Open

GREENSBORO, N.C., March 25.—(AP)—A blaring finish Sunday gave Sam Snead of Hot Springs, Va., the Greensboro open golf tournament with a record-equalling 270, 10 under par. Herman Keiser, Akron, O., finished second, six strokes behind.

In taking down first money of $1,500 in the $7,500 event over the 6,720 and Sedgwick Country Club course, Snead scored rounds of 67-67-66, overcoming a four-stroke first-day deficit.

His closing 66 tied the course record.

Appearance Was Sensation

Gouzenko Calm, Quiet At Espionage Hearing

By GEORGE BURMAN

MONTREAL, March 25.—(CP)—Igor Gouzenko, key prosecution witness at the preliminary hearing of Fred Rose, labor-Progressive member of parliament charged with espionage activity, weathered his first two days on the stand with considerable sangfroid.

THE 37-YEAR-OLD former clerical clerk at the Russian embassy at Ottawa, whose startling disclosures of an alleged spy ring in Canada launched the present Royal Commission inquiry, told his story calmly, quietly, somewhat haltingly, under the questioning of special prosecutor, F. Philippe Brail.

Direct but soft-spoken, he was not always heard by newspapermen and others present in the court, and on many occasions Mr. Brail repeated his answer. Gouzenko would nod and say, "That is right."

Both days he wore a single-breasted light grey suit, a white shirt and yellow striped tie.

BROWN HAired, clean-shaven and of medium build, he might easily pass as a Canadian, except that when he speaks he displays a decided accent.

His first court appearance came in 1945, when he was arrested and held in custody for a month. He had been kept under review by authorities. Photographs were banned by court order.

He entered the court in the middle of six members of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police in plain clothes, through a small door beside the judge's bench. During the hearings, two "Mounties" stood, while others sat close by.

Early in the initial session, the witness was granted the court's permission to be seated during testimony. His hands, half closed, rested on the top of the witness box.

REPLYING TO ALL questions briefly, though slowly in studied English, he showed little or no emotion.

Gouzenko's whereabouts between sessions is an RCMP secret.

trucks. Everyone of them that I know, paid more than the lawful ceiling price—in most cases the price was 40 percent to 100 percent higher. Everybody who has tried to buy a second-hand vehicle knows what the situation is. While there is no doubt in my mind that there are honest dealers who have been scrupulously careful to see all the vehicles they sold were offered at the lawful ceiling, I have yet to hear of such a transaction.

THE PEOPLE WHO BUY these cars are all persons who need them for business purposes—persons who are engaged in businesses where they can't earn a living without a car. Most of them are returned men, who, because they didn't own a car before the war, can't receive a priority, but there are a great many others in exactly the same position.

I have tried to get some of my friends who have told me how much they had to pay, to give the information to the War Prices and Trades Board. But they explain that there is no sense of them doing that, because on all the documents they had to sign to get possession, including receipts, the sum shown is the lawful selling price, or less. They had to sign those documents in order to get the black-market price from whom they bought the vehicle to sell. If they hadn't there would have been another sucker along later who would have—and they felt that they had to have a vehicle at any price.

THE DIFFERENCE between the lawful ceiling price and the actual selling price is handed to the seller in cash. In one case the buyer walked through a room, dropped a roll of bills on the floor and left the building. He returned an hour later and then made the purchase, in the presence of witnesses, without any mention being made of the "bonus" dropped on the floor. It sounds silly, but it is safe.

These black marketeers are not only fleecing the buyers, but they are fleecing the government as well—because all these "bonuses" just go right into their back pockets and never appear on their income tax declarations. There is no record of them; it would be proof of their guilt to show them, and they figure they are doing too much for Mr. J. any way.

Actually the people who pay more are just as guilty as those who ask more than the lawful price. Their willingness to pay creates the black market. The black marketeers justify their action by saying they'd be suckers not to take the easy money which is offered to them.

ONE WAY TO BREAK this is for the government to broaden their priority system so that it is fairer to the person who actually needs a car—there are some people who are entitled to priorities who don't need it as much as others who are not. Then the law enforcement agencies might do a little aggressive campaigning and trap-laying—they could catch the marketeers that way.

Entertain Patients

Patients at the Colonel Mewburn Pavilion, University hospital, were entertained on Tuesday and Thursday nights of last week with a concert and variety show.

On Tuesday night the Alphonso club presented a play entitled "My Irish Rose." On Thursday night the Ladies' Auxiliary of the South Side branch of the Canadian Legion put on a variety show for the veteran-patients.

May End Activity

The Royal Society of St. George, Edmonton branch, may close down following a meeting to be held in the IOOF hall on Tuesday evening when the matter will be considered. The reason given for the decline in strength of the organization is "lack of interest."

It is stated to be doubtful as to whether or not the annual banquet will be held on April 22.

Sea Cadets Parade

Sea Cadets will parade in the Drill Hall at the Naval Barracks on Tuesday, March 26, at 1900 hours.

Bridge

By WILLIAM E. MCKENNEY

America's Card Authority

The name of R. E. Needham is well known to midwest bridge players. Dick has long been associated with bridge tournaments in the midwest. At the West Virginia State tournament at Clarkburg recently I met his brother, Edgar Needham, when he played today's hand against me.
